LEAD RUSHES UP 3 PER CENT

The Industrials Were Eagerly Sought After and the Selling Was Good for Saturday's Session.

New York, March 25.—Money on call has been nominal, opening, highest and lowest, 3 closing offered at 3.

Post rates, 1.875-1.88.

Government bonds have been firm.

The market opened active and buoyant under a brisk demand to cover shorts, and considerable buying for the long account. Prices went up to 3 per cent with a rush. Gas, Electric, Rubber and Lead leading the upward movement. When the bears attempted to cover in General Electric they found a quiet source of the stock, and the brokers who have been tendering it freely to the shorts say that very little stock has been returned. Among the other Industrials Cotton Oil moved up to 2 per cent on reports of heavy earnings.

The Traders and New Englanders also had a good and solid day at the best figures of the week. Coalage sold up from 61 1/4 to 63 1/4 on a largely increased business, and the brokers, identified with the insiders, were the principal buyers. The dealings aggregated 170,300 shares, a fair amount for a Saturday short session.

Ribes—March, 30.95; May, 30.10; July, 30.50.

London Grain.

London, March 25.—The grain markets opened this morning quiet. At Liverpool wheat unchanged, barley varied, hoping to obtain some concessions. Corn 14d higher and less active. Wheat on passage quiet but steady. The French markets were unchanged.

LOCAL MARKETS.

A general quietness prevailed in the local markets during the past week. The market was well supplied, with all lines excepting poultry, which remained firm and high. Farm produce was steady. Eggs dropped 4 cents within the week, but butter was steady and in demand. There was a general flurry in the sugar market yesterday, and all grades went up 1-1/2c. Lard was lower yesterday, and went down 1/2c of a cent. Wheat was unusually steady, the quotations in outwards markets varying but 1/2c of a cent from day to day. Fresh pork declined a little, but closed firm. The trade of the week was satisfactory to merchants.
